Barbara Howard (1920-2017)

- Barbara Howard was the first black female athlete represent canadian and international competition.
- This is important because she broke the gender barriers in canadian sports.
- She has so much confidence for what she does and doesn't let the discrimination get to her, making her super motivational.
- Barbara opened doors for future black female athletes

Scan to watch highlight

Andrew Wiggins

- Andrew wiggins,professional NBA player.
- He currently plays for the miami heat but won a championship with Golden State Warriors.
- He inspires his young audience while playing basketball
- His teamwork,resilience and consistency.
- He had high expectations since he was a first overall draft pick.
- Switching between teams was a challenge since each team has there own way to do things.

Scan to watch highlight

Chuba Hubbard

- Chuba Hubbard is a professional NFL player
- Demonstrates his leadership through hard work and dedication.
- He challenges himself to become a better player each and everyday.
- He faced lots of injuries through his career but still keeps going.
- Team player not selfish.

Scan to watch highlight

Josh Palmer

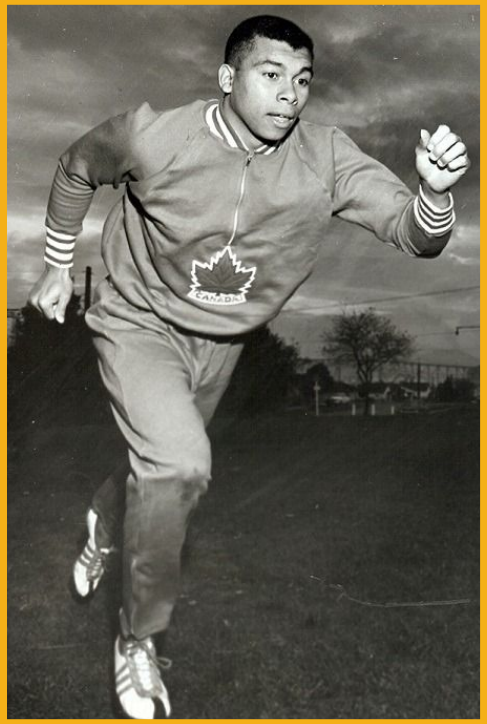

- Josh Palmer is a NFL wide receiver
- Demonstrates leadership through improvement and consistency.
- Competitive but in a team sense.
- He highlights his values and responsibilities

Scan to watch highlight

Harry Jerome (1940-1982)

- Harry Jerome , Canadian Olympic sprinter.
- One of canada's greatest track and field athletes.
- He has lots of courage and determination .
- He faced serious injuries that threatened his career.
- Also so much racism.
- Won many medals.
- Inspired many future children.
- Track and field also challenged his mental, but he kept going.

Scan to watch highlight

Mustafa

Canadian Singer & Poet

- He is a Canadian Singer and poet from Toronto, Ontario.
- His music focus on themes like community loss and healing.
- Many of his songs are based on real experience from his life.
- He openly addresses topics such as mental health and emotional struggle.
- His work encourages peace, understanding and supporting one another.

Scan to explore his music!

Jully Black

Canadian R&B singer

- She is a Canadian R&B and soul singer from Toronto, Ontario.
- She is often referred to as “Canada’s Queen of R&B.”
- Her music sends messages about confidence, identity, and self worth.
- She experienced racism and limited representation in the music industry.
- Over time, he became an important voice for Black Canadian artists.

Scan to explore her music!

Sean Leon

Canadian Rapper & Creative Artist

- He is a Canadian rapper, singer, and creative artist from Toronto.
- His music combines hip-hop with rock, soul, and spoken word.
- In 2012, he founded the independent label IXXI Initiative.
- The label helped support the early career of Daniel Caesar.
- His music explores them such as identity, mental health, and self expression.

Scan to explore his music!

Shad

Canadian Rapper & Broadcaster

- He is a Canadian rapper from London, Ontario.
- His music focuses on storytelling and thoughtful lyrics.
- His songs often discuss identity, education, and social issues.
- He is known for being intelligent and reflective in his work.
- His music encourages listeners to think critically and deeply.

Scan to explore his music!

Ebhoni

Canadian R&B / Pop Artist

- She is a Canadian singer and songwriter from Toronto.
- Her music blends R&B, pop, and hip hop sounds.
- Her songs focus on confidence, self expression, and independence.
- She uses bold visuals and lyrics to stand out in the industry
- Her work represents modern Black Canadian creativity.

Scan to explore her music!

Harrison Mooney

- Harrison Mooney is a Canadian writer and journalist who speaks openly about racism,identity and his experience being adopted by a white family.
- His story is important because it shows the racism in Canada.
- Leadership through honesty, bravery, and speaking up about difficult experiences

Scan To Explore

Jason Reynolds

- He is an author who writes stories about real life, for young people.
- His stoires talk about identity, racism, and confidence
- He shows encourages young people to speak up and be themselves.
- Writing helped him find his voice and believe in himself.

Scan To Explore

Deborah Falaye

- Deborah Falaye speaks openly about racism and unfair treatment in Canada.
- She brings attention to issues many people avoid talking about
- Even when challenged, she continues to educate and share her message.
- Her work has helped raise awareness and encourages conversations about equality.

Scan To Explore

Desmond Cole

- Desmond Cole is both a writer and activist who speaks about racism, and police treatment in Canada.
- Even when his opinions cause debate, he continues to speak honestly and push for change.
- His writing has helped bring attention to problems that many people did not want to talk about.
- His work still matters today because these issues continue to affect people's daily lives.

Scan To Explore

Esi Edugyan

- Her books often focus on characters who feel like an outsider and are trying to find themselves
- Through her writing, she brings attention to voices that are not always heard
- Her work has helped make Canadian literature more diverse

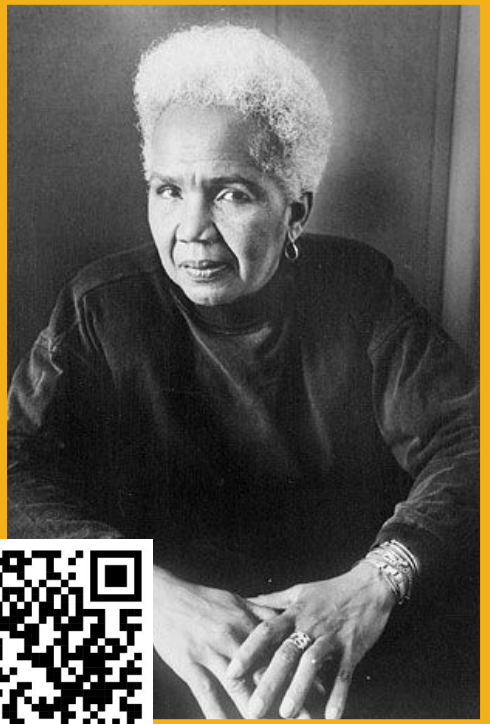

Scan To Explore

Rosemary Brown (1930-2003)

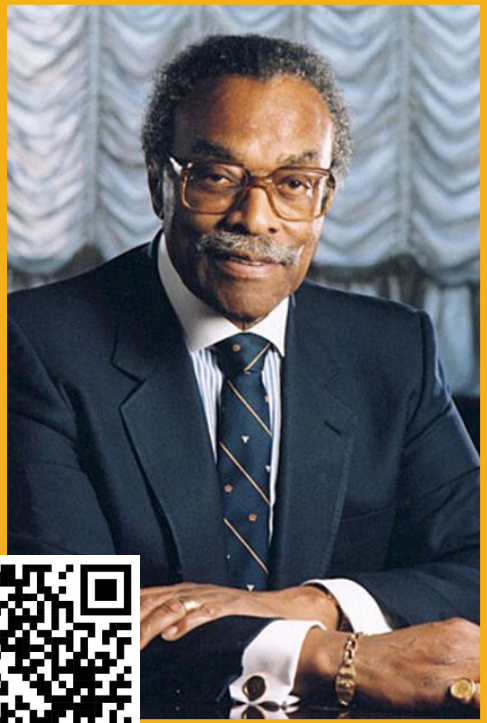

- Canadian politician, activists and feminists born in Jamaica and moved to Canada in 1950
- First Black Woman elected to a provincial legislature, serving as a MLA in British Columbia.
- First Black woman to run for a federal political party leader.
- She broke political barriers and opened up opportunities for future Black leaders in Canada.

SCAN TO EXPLORE!

Lincoln Alexander (1922-2012)

- Was a Canadian politician and lawyer, born in Toronto and raised by Jamaican immigrant parents.
- First Black Member of parliament and the first black Lieutenant Governor, holding this position until 1991.
- Worked within the government to transform the system.
- He proved that black people could overcome racial barriers throughout Canada.

SCAN TO EXPLORE!

Mary Ann Shadd (1823-1893)

- Was a lawyer, and educator in the 19th century, born in America and later moved to Ontario in the 1850s after escaping slavery.
- First Black women lawyer and publisher in North America.
- Used her knowledge to create a difference by speaking up for the overall community.
- Encouraged others to become more independent and educated to defeat racial barriers.

SCAN TO EXPLORE!

Carrie Best (1903-2001)

- Was a Journalist and a civil rights activist for Black individuals in Nova Scotia.
- Gained recognition when she was arrested in 1942 for advocating against racial segregation by sitting in movie theatre
- Relied on journalism to challenge unfair laws as well as peaceful protests.
- Supported others to raise their voice and speak about the law to gain equal rights.
- One of many to begin fighting for civil rights in Canada.

SCAN TO EXPLORE!

THE CLARION

LAST TO RETURN

Our Roll Of Honor

FIRST TO ENLIST

Lest We Forget!
In Memory of
Robert Leonard Lawrence
Tyle William Isaard

Sandy Hudson

- Canadian Social Justice activists and cofounder for Black lives Matter Toronto.
- Works to advocate against police violence and inequality in Canada.
- Encouraging Black Canadians, mostly the youth to speak up and protest to promote change.
- She has organized many public speaking events to speak about the public system in Canada.

SCAN TO EXPLORE!